Attractions.

Join us for a fun extended bank holiday weekend in the village of Middle Wallop, which lies in the Test Valley. The Valley is famed for its rolling hills, picturesque Hampshire villages, pretty churches and traditional country pubs, as well as the spectacular Test Way. Middle Wallop is close to the lovely town of Stockbridge, which sits on the River Test. Stockbridge has an old-fashioned High Street with a host of shops, pubs and restaurants.

We will be rallying at the museum of the Army Flying Corps and may arrange a tour of the museum if enough ralliers are interested.

There will be a number of opportunities for ralliers to get together over the weekend. Look out for more details in the Affairs of the Herts
