

Little Boxes for the Elderly at Christmas time

During the last 15 years plus Jan Weedon and myself have been sending children's shoeboxes to the Sarmatian's Appeal. These boxes have been received by Jan's church and sent to overseas. The project was getting so expensive as they want you to fill the box which could amount to around £30 each, then they wanted £3.00 last year to post them out. This postage goes up each year.

This year we thought we may try something different.

There is an appeal for shoeboxes to be given out to the Elderly ladies and gents in care homes whom don't have families to treat them at Christmas time, also there is a sock Appeal for the homeless.

These boxes are filled with soap, smellies, playing cards, puzzle books and chocolates. The socks are filled with similar you put one sock into the other then fill it up.

If anyone want to donate any of the above to help our cause please feel free.

Herts Rally Book 2020

Due to finances and technology the committee are trying something new with the next edition of the rally book

During the past few years the printing costs have been supported by the advertisers, but this is a thing of the past.

When I first took on the book, we managed around £3.500 in revenue, last year I only managed to get £1.300 not covering the costs of a very nice colourful edition.

Most of the advertisers use the internet to get their business. I have offered them links to our website but not many were interested. We receive from the Club a grant of around £1.00 per head and for this we have to supply a rally programme and notice of the AGM.

So, this year we will be slimming down the number of pages and colour.

My advice to you all is to keep the 2019 addition to hand for reference.

I will try and put as much info in, but you can always use the Herts website for extra details.
